Burden Notice: Sections 184 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992, as amended, authorizes the Secretary to pay claims to a lender in the event of borrower default and where all reasonable efforts of collection by the lender have been exhausted, which includes loss mitigation involving pre-foreclosure sale of the defaulted borrower's property. The respondents are defaulted Section 184 borrowers who are attempting to sell their property to avoid foreclosure. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 15 minutes per response, including the time for searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions to reduce this burden, to the Reports Management Officer, REE, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 7th Street SW, Room 4176, Washington, DC 20410-5000. When providing comments, please refer to OMB Approval No. 2577-XXXX. HUD may not collect this information, and you are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a valid OMB control number. HUD is authorized to solicit the information requested in the form by virtue of 12 U.S.C. § 1715z-13a and 24 C.F.R. Part 1005. While no assurance of confidentiality is pledged to respondents, HUD generally discloses this data only in response to a Freedom of Information Act request.
